The following is an account of the exercises of the anniversary.
 After partaking of a bountiful basket lunch we gathered at one P. M. for the afternoon service. Jos S. Sidley of Dartmouth and Robert P. Gifford of Providence gave the address of welcome on behalf of their beloved Mother Eunice Sidley aged 95 near a century of this monthly Meeting and Phibe R. Gifford aged 96. who was formally a member and also a minister of Dartmouth Monthly Meeting for thirty years but has for several years resided in Providence P. B.
 Dr. E. F. Tucker of New Bedford read a very interesting Historical Sketch which gave quite an insight into the outward and also the spiritual condition of this Meeting at different periods within the past two centuries. after which a poem was read by Suttle Gifford (grand daughter of Eunice Sidley) in Dartmouth Monthly Meeting in by gone days. Then followed an instructive address by John W. Dillingham of Philadelphia, in which he exhorted us as much has been said about the heads of this meeting to bear in mind that Jesus Christ was the head of all, and the one to whom we should look for guidance in all things.

 Franklyn Howland of Scusmet gave a short but interesting address. Also Dr. Thomas of Baltimore Allen C. Thomas and Henry A. Hooper of Haverford Pa. Mary S. Kimber of New York and others. There were about four hundred present. It was a day in which we received much instruction and encouragement for which we give God all the glory.

Received the following report from the local meeting on Ministry and oversight.

In conformity with the requirements of the Uniform Discipline we present a summary of the information received as to the spiritual condition and life of the meeting. Our meetings have been regularly held with few exceptions on account of severe storms. Our meetings have been spiritual and interesting. The attendance as usual, some of our members not as diligent in attendance as we would wish. Some care has been taken in regard to family devotions. Not as much of the spirit of Christ manifested in our relations one to the other and to the world as should be as becoming. His followers. One member engaged in Bible School work outside of Friends Society. Meetings have been held at Allens Neck in second month by Annie M. Gray and they received a blessing from her Ministry.
On behalf of the local meeting on Ministry and Oversight. Phoebe S. Smith Clerk
