All the entries in the volume are in the handwriting of Secretary Morton.

Governor Prence was at the head of affairs in the colony at the time when the volume commenced, on the fourth of June, 1661, and continued so to be until the time of his decease, which event occurred on the twenty-ninth day of March, 1673. During the remaining time covered by the records of this volume, ending on the thirtieth day of October, 1678, Mr. Josiah Winslow was Governor, having been elected to the office on the third day of June, 1673. Assistants, &c.

IT was ordered by the Court, that with the warrants for June Court next some propositions be made to the seuerall townes to consider whither some wayes may not be thought vpon for the easment of our charges, either by graunting libertie to some pson or psons in each towne to trade powder, shott, guns, and mony, (now vnder prohibition) with the Indians, and that 1668-9. all others being restrained, they should allow something yearly to the use of the government; and it is conceived that by this may accrue further benefit to vs, in that hereby a greater part of the pork that is now carried by the Indians to Boston, and by them sold there at an under rate, may fall into the hands of some of our people, and soe the prise may be kept up.

PRENCE,
Gov^r.

Or by putting something upon such as draw wine and liquors to allow for their licence, and the excise to be taken off, or any other way that the townes may propose; in which it is desired they would exercise their thoughts, and propose some suitable persons in their townes to manage such matters.

In reference to the complaint of some of Taunton against Bridgewater and Rehoboth respecting the running of lines and bounds of lands, which hath occasioned controuersies between severall persons in the said townships, the Court have ordered, that some fitt persons be appointed out of each of the said townships to run the said lines; which incase they doe not effect to mutuall satisfaction betwixt this Court and the next June Court, that then the Court will see cause to appoint some to doe it; and that in the mean time there be noe trespass upon the timber or swampes of each other bordering upon their lines.

In reference to the request of Peter Collymore concerning a parcel of marsh appertaining to him, lying between the third and fourth cliff at Scituate, forasmuch as the bound marks are lost, and hee doubteth that hee is wronged thereby, soe as some of the neighbours bordering on him may have more then their due, the Court have requested Cap^t Cudworth, M^r Tilden, and Cornett Studson to repaire thervnto, and to settle matters about the bounds of the same, if they can; if not, that they att the next Generall Court make report to the Court how they find matters in that respect.

In reference to the request of John Louell, of Rehoboth, the Court have ordered, in consideration of his low condition and great necessity of land, that the towne of Rehoboth doe accommodate him and others in like necessity with a competency of land to supply their necessity on the land on the northsyde of the said towne, according to agreement; and incase they doe it not betwixt this date and the next June Court, the Court will then see cause, on due notice and information therof, to give him, the said John Louell, libertie to make choise of a place in the said tract of land for his accommodation.

In reference vnto Josias Leichfield, of Scituate, the Court being certified that hee wilbe of age on the third day of Aprill next ensuing the date heerof, they have requested the major to repaire vnto Scituate on the fift of the same month, and to see the said Leichfield possessed of the land ordered to him by the Court, in reference to a legacye bequeathed to him by John Allin, of Scituate aforesaid, deceased, and to see Micaell Peirse discharged of his engagement in reference therunto. 1668-9.

Letters of administration was granted unto Anna Barstow to administer on the estate of Wiltam Barstow, late deceased.

*Att this Court, Christopher Winter and his daughter, Martha Hewitt, appeared, being bound over to the Court on suspicion of committing incest with each other; and after strict and particular examination of them, the Court saw cause to commit them both to ward for the grounds and reasons following:—

The principall grounds mouing the Court to suspend the finall issue of the case respecting Christopher Winter and Martha, his daughter, is because there is great feares that a very hainous and capitall crime hath bine committed by them, viz^d, incest of the highest nature, which, although it can not be att p^rsent proued by full and cleare testimony, yett it did very much face vpon them in many respects.

1. In Christopher Winters sending to invite Hewett or Tower to his said daughter some little time after shee conceiued with child, when as not longe before they were both rejected in their suite for her.

2. Because the said Martha will not discover the father of her child, it is an argument that some p^rson is the father of it that shee hath more then ordinary grounds to be vvwilling to disclose.

3. Because of Winters hastening the marriage, and some expressions of his declaring that hee had noe comfort in the match, and his and his daughters carriage that day that they were married.

4. Winters acknowledgment, that after hee had knowledge of his said daughters being withchild, — being, as hee said, informed by Hewitt, — hee did not bring them together and enquire into it, nor reprove or beare witnes against her wickednes, as would haue become a father that was innocent.

5. His indulgence to his said daughter since this wickednes, although knowne formerly to be very austerer to his children.

NATH: MORTON, Secr^r.

The testimony of John Hewitt, aged twenty seauen yeares or therabouts, doth testify, that some certaine time after I was marryed, my father Winter, being in discourse with mee and my wife, asked mee of what constitution I was off; I replied, I was subject to be angry, as well as other men, but did not vsually expresse it in raging tearmes. My father Winter replied, "My daughter is of a very loueing disposition, but you must haue a care of frightening of her; for," hee said, "I came from the mill, and did but giue her a tapp with my horse rodd, and she dropped downe in a swoound;" but hee thought shee would haue turned about and throwne soemthing att his head. Further, when my wife was in trauell, my father Winter and I being in a house together by ourselues some distance off from his dwelling house, hee said his daughter had a hard time, and hee feared that the midwife should charge it vpon her now to tell whose the child was; and I, the said Hewitt, replied, shee would make her tell if shee could. Hee said, if hee had spoken to her, shee would not nor durst not, for shee should tell in time conuenient; and further saith not.

the Court caused a bill of inditeament to be drawne up and preferred against him, which the grand jury went forth vpon, and could not find the said bill, and soe the said Jonathan Briggs was cleared before the Court.

Furthermore, in answere vnto the earnest request of the said Samuell Hallowey to be diorced from his said wife, shee haucing not onely most horribly abused him, as is manifested by the testimonies to the abouesaid presentment, and att other times, as is aboue hinted, but alsoe confessed that shee hath committed adultery with diuers persons; yett notwithstanding, the Court, being not very cleare to such a proceeding att present, referred the full answere ther-vnto vntill the next June Court, being willing to take mature advice and deliberation about it, as is beehooftull to soe waighty a matter.

Att this Court, Robert Ransom appeared to answere his presentment for speaking wicked and reproachfull words against the Gov^r and majestrates, and did put his presentment vpon trauerse; the jury cleared him legally, there being but one witnes appeering against him in that case; altho they were pswaded that the acusation spake like vnto the said Ransoms language.

Att this Court, John Prince, Juni^r, of Nantaskett, appeared, haucing bine acused by Bethyah Tubbs that hee had begotten her with child; but it soe fell out by the ordering hand of God, that shee being sent for to heare some testimonies that hee said hee could produce, tending to his clearing, shee fell in trauell, and was deliuered of a child while the Court was then in being att Plymouth, on which the time being computed that shee acused him to haue done the acte, it was found not to answere to the time of the child's beirth, it being come to full pfection; on which the Court cleared him, soe farr as they could as yett descerne, from being guilty of the said fact.

Wheras Joseph Turner, Seni^r, was present at October Court, 1669, for slaundering, and for horrid inciuiltie in words and actions, and in the presence of seuerall women, as by plentifull testimonies appeers, it being pleaded att this Court, to which hee was summoned to answere the said presentment, that the termes of the presentment were soe generall, that hee could not be provided att that time to answere to it, the Court allowed that hee should haue knowledge of the particular heads of his charge contained in the testimonies giuen him, in order to his answering itt att June Court next; which accordingly was done.

*Forasmuch as Joseph Turner departed from this Court without the Courts leaue or knowledge, wheras they expected securitie for his appearance to answere his presentment att June Court next, the Court ordered that hee should be arrested and secured to the said Court, the charges against him being soe many and of soe hainous a nature.

In reference to the presentment of Micaell Peirse, of Scittuate, for vuseemly carriages towards Sarah Nicolls, of Scittuate, forasmuch as there appeered but one testimony to the presentment, and that the testimony was written and not read vnto the deponant, the Court saw cause to remitt the said presentment.

*In reference to the complaint of diuers of the inhabitants of Rehoboth, that they were oppressed in being soe high rated for their lands lately purchased of the collonie on the northerly syde of the towne, that it did greatly frustrate the intent both of the buyers and sellers, which was principally for the accomodation of the poorer sort with land, and yett soe as not to oppresse them as much otherwise, —

The Court doe determine, that the mile and half that was giuen as an enlargement to the towne of Rehoboth be layed to that towne for their easment in rates and charges, but to be rated according to the way the Court order provided, and not according to that townes singular way of rateing; —

And that all the rest of the north lands within their purchase, both farmes and else, be rated senerall and apart from the said towne, viz^d, thirty shillings towards a forty pound rate to the collonie; and according to that proportion, and not otherwise, to be charged to the minnistry and other town charges, vntill the Court shall see cause otherwise to dispose concerning them, vntill which time they shall alsoe be and remaine within the constablericke of the township of Rehoboth.

And wheras those lands on the northsyde of Rehoboth were sold and by deed passed ouer to the propriators of that towne, viz^o, to all that hold lands there, from a fifty pound estate and v^pward, yett by mutuall consent and agreement amongst themselues, all the inhabitants were taken in to be joynt purchasers, it is determined that the names of such as were not comprehended in the aboue mensioned deed shalbe entered in their towne record, and in the publicke record of the collonie alsoe, if they desire it, as full and equall purchasers and propriators in the said lands with the rest.

This Court, according to a power reserued to them in the graunt of Swansey township, as by record appeers, haueing heard the pleas by the agents on both sydes, and vpon mature consideration, doe order and determine, for a finall settlement of the said controuersy, as followeth, viz^o: —

1. That the meddowes comōny knowne by the name of the Hundred Acree Meddows, although they lye within Swansey line, yett to belonge to the township of Rehoboth, and there to be rated as they haue bine vsed to be, and not vnto Swansey.

2. That the meddowes belonging to Sowansett, commonly called the Fieue Ten Acree Lotts, lying within the line of Rehoboth, shalbe and belonge to the township of Swansey, and there to be rated, and not vnto Rehoboth.

Att this Court, Samuëll Packer, Seni^r, was lycenced and authorized by the Court to keep an ordinary att Bridgwater, and to be provided competently for the accomodateing of strangers, and to keep good orders in his house in that behalfe.

Att this Court John Cowin, of Scittuate, appeered, being bound ouer to answare for speaking of contemptable words against royall authoritie, in that hee should say hee scorned to be in subjection to any English man, and that there was neuer any Kinge in England that was an English man but one crookedbacked Richard, a crooked rogue, just like such an one as hee named, viz³, a crooked man well knowne in the towne of Scittuate. Diuers testimonyes came in against him, which testified on oath the same in substance aboue inserted; but because the seuerall euidences could not att this Court appeer to testify the words to his face, and for that the case is rare, and the Court being willing to gaine healpe and aduise from others as much as may be in it, it was refered vntill June Court next, and the said Cowin to be kept in durance vntill then.

*The Oath of the Water Bayley.

You shall faithfully scrue in the office of a water bayley in the jurisdiction of New Plymouth, and shall carefully obserue such orders of Court as concerns your said office, with speciall reference vnto the improuement therof att Cape Cod and places adjacent ; you shall faithfully discharge the trust imposed vpon you in demanding and receiuing whatsoeuer shalbe due vnto the collonie by such fish as shalbe there taken, and shall seasonably giue in a true accompt therof vnto the Treasurer yearly. So healp, &c.

Thomas Paine was chosen to be the water bayley of the jurisdiction of New Plymouth, and sworne att this Court.

In answare vnto the petition preferred to this Court by M^r John Prince and M^r Nathaniel Bosworth, of the towne of Hull, allies Nantaskett, in the behalfe of the said towne, to haue libertie to imploy some boates and their companies for the taking of mackerell with netts, att the season therof, att Cape Codd, this Court doth graunt vnto them libertie for two boates and three companies, to take mackerell there att the season therof; soe as they make payment of what is due to the collonie from forraigners, notwithstanding any order of Court extant, prohibiting others to fish there.

*The Court determines all the guns in our hands that did belonge to Phillip are justly forfeit, and doe att the p^sent order the deniuing of them, to be kept att the seuerall townes according to their equall proportions, vntill October Court next, and then to bee att the Courts dispose, as reason may appeer to them, and then to belonge vnto the townes, if not otherwise disposed of. By the Court.

That which the Court grounds their judgment vpon is, —

For that att the treaty att Taunton Phillip and his counsell did acknowledge that they had bine in a preparation for warr against vs; and that not grounded vpon any injury sustained from vs, nor prouocation giuen by vs, but from their owne naughty harts, and because hee had formerly violated and broken sollemne couenants made and renewed to vs; hee then freely tendered (not being in a capassitie to be kept faithfull by any other bonds) to resigne vp all his English armes, for our future securitie in that respect; hee failed greatly in p^formance therof by ecce^tt conveying away and carrying home seuerall guns that might and should have bine then deliuered, and not giuing them vp since, according to his engagement, nor soe far as is in his power, as appeers in that many guns are knowne still to be amongst the Indians that liue by him, and not soe much as giueing order to some of his men, that are vnder his y^mediate com^aund, about the bringing in of their armes.

In his indeauoring since the treaty to render vs odious to our neighbour collonie, by false reports, complaints, and suggestions.

And his refusing or avoiding a treaty with vs concerning these and other matters that are justly offenciue to vs, notwithstanding his late engagement, as well as former, to submitt to the kings authoritie, and the authoritie of this collonie.

It was alsoe ordered by the Court, that the armes of the Indians of Namassakett and Assowamsett, that were feched in by Major Winslow, and those that were with him, are confiscate and forfeite from the said Indians, for the grounds aboue expressed, they being in compliance with Phillip in his late plott, and yett would neither by our Gou^rs order nor by Phillips desire, bring in their armes, as was engaged by the treaty; and the said guns are ordered by the Court to the major and his companie, for their satisfaction in that expedition.

This Court have agreed and voated, that some force be raised and sent to the Indians at Saconett, to fetch in their armes, and in defect thereof their persons, as occasion may require.

And for the management of this enterprize it is referred to the councill of warr, or soe many of them as shall meet, soe as they be nine in number, viz^d, the major pte of them concurring.

The Names of such as are aded to the Majestrates to be off the Council of Warr.

Mr Josias Winslow, Scuir,	Leif ^t Morton,
James Walker,	Cornett Studson,
Thomas Huckens,	Ensigne Eames,
Nathaniel Morton,	Isacke Chettenden.

The oath to be adminestred to such as are to be aded to the majestrates to be of the councill of warr, as aforsaid:—

This oath is otherwise ordered; see the orders of July Court, anno 1671, in this booke.

You shall reddily appeer on any sumions directed vnto you by the president of the councill of warr, att such place or places as you shalbe ordered vnto by the said summons, vnlesse any ineuitable providence shall or may hinder your said appeerance, on which occations and meetings you shall faithfully, with respect to the glory of God and the good and welfare of this jurisdiction, afoard your best aduice and councill in all matters of importance and waighty concernment (or soe seeming) that may or shalbe p^rsented before you; in reference to the continuance of peace or nessesitated warr, as occasion may require; you shall faithfully keep secrett all such expeditions and achievements as may or shalbe ordered and contriued by the councill of warr, tendung to the generall peace and good of this collonie of N. Plymouth; you shall with like ceeresye conceale all other matters that may be agitated and transacted by the said councill, in reference to the p^rmises, that shalbe thought meet by the president and councill aforsaid to be concealled. Soe heelp you God, whoe is the God of truth, and the punisher of falsehood.

*Three shillings a day is allowed for a man and his horse, to all such as were employed in the late expedition for the fetching in of armes from the Indians; and this allowance to be pmanent for the future vntill it shalbe otherwise ordered.

And likewise for any teame of foure oxen and an horse, and a man to goe with them, that haue bine and are to be employed in the countryes seruice, to haue five shillings a day.

In answare to a petition preferred to the Court by M^r Richard Wharton and M^r John Saffin, of Boston, marchants, to haue a peculiar libertie to themselves and other p̄tenors to improue such pyne, spruce, and ceder timber as groweth on our countrye cōmons, for the producing of rosen, turpintine, and mastick, this Court haue graunted and doe order that the said Richard Wharton & John Saffin, and their p̄tenors, shall haue libertie to improue such pyne, spruce, and ceder trees as groweth on our countryes cōmons, for the ends aforesaid, for the tearme of ten yeares from the date of this p̄sent Court, held at Plymouth this fiftenth day of June, 1671, on these conditions followinge: —

These conditions and reseruatiens being duely obserued, this Court doth heerby prohibite all others within this iurisdiction from improucing of any of the said timber, for the ends aforesaid, for the tearme of ten yeares, begiining from this p̄sent Court, held att Plymouth, the 15th day of June, anno Dom̄i 1671.

[*47.] *The Indians engagement to the collonic of New Plymouth for their fidelitie vnto the English, agreed vpon amongst themselves the 10th of Aprill, 1671, and declared by some of the cheife of them att the Court held att Plymouth the seauenth day of June, 1671.

Wee, the Indians of Paomett, doe engage our fidelitie vnto the gou'ment of New Plymouth, that wee will submitt ourselues vnto their gou'ment, and if wee vnderstand or heare of any plott or designe contrived against the English, or any pte of them, by any other Indians, wee doe heerby engage to reveale, declare, or discour it to some one or more of the majestrates of New Plymouth. And further, if they haue occasion to make vse of our healp, if any that shall or may come against the English liuing within the gou'ment of New Plymouth, wee doe engage to healp them, if they desire or require our assistance, to the sheding of our blood, or the lose of our liues; the like wee engage for our posteritie for euer, that shall succeed vs; and forasmuch as the English and wee, the poor Indians, are of one blood, as Acts 17th, 26, for wee doe confess wee poor Indians in our liues were as captiues vnder Satan, and our sachems, doeing their wills whose breath perisheth, as Psalmes 146, 3, 4; Exodū 15, 1, 2, &c; but now wee know by y^e word of God, that it is better to trust in the great God and his strength. Psā 118, 8, 9; and besides, wee were like vnto woulues and lyons, to destroy one an other; but wee hope and helieue in God; therefore wee desire to enter into couenant with the English respecting our fidelitie, as Isai: 11, 6, and this wee further desire, that if the English should heare any euill report of vs, wherby there might be any occasion of suspicion of our fidelity, wee desire it might not be belieued or receiued vntill wee might haue the libertie and opportunitie to cleare ourselues; for wee desire to keep our conenant and engagement, if God heales vs soe to doe.

And wee, the Indians of Nausett, Sakatuckett, Nobscussett, Paomett, Mannamoicke, and Wequalutt, and Mattakeesett, doe all of vs, for our selues, our neighbors, and our rising generation, doe engage for ourselues and our neighbors, respecting our fidelitie to the English, as before expressed, concerning the Indians of Paomett in euery respect; vnto the which engagement wee of our respectiue places of Paomett, Sakatuckett, Nobscussed, Mannamoicke, Mattakeesett, and Wequalutt haue heervnto sett our hands this seauenth day of June, 1671, for our selues and in the behalfe of our neighbors in our seuerall places, as is expressed before.

	John Aldin,	John Freeman,
	Josias Winslow,	Nathaniell Bacon, and
	Wiltam Bradford,	Constant Southworth,
	Assistants, &c.

The Court haue ordered the Treasurer, Captaine Bradford, to impannell a jury att Bridgwater, to lay out the new way to Plymouth, which is judged to be a nearer and better then that which was formerly layed out; and alsoe to lay out such other wayes as are nessesary in the said towne.

The Court haue ordered, that the North Purchase, soe called, shall lye vnto the towne of Rehoboth, vntill it comes to be a township, and in the mean time to beare the seauenth p^rte of all rates that shalbe leuied for the publicke charges of that towne; and when the said purchase shall become a townshipp by itselpe, then the said township of Rehoboth to be eased in their rates.

PRESENCE,

The next page forward contains an order of the Generall Court holden att New Plymouth, June the 16th, 1671, in answare to a petition from many of the inhabitants of Scittuate, dated March the seauenth, 1670, in reference to their vndeuided lands, as followeth:—

*By an order of this Court of October, 36, it appeers the towne of Scittuate was allowed, and the purchasers and freemen were comissionated, to dispose of the lands therof for the accomodation of a society or township; and what such trustees did within the compas of their comission or order must be allowed and owned. Bat it appeers not to vs, that it was in their power by that order to deriue and pas ouer their power and trust in whole or in pte vnto others, neither did they since procure the allowance of this Court soe to doe; and therefore wee judge their acte of the 13th of December, 47, to be vnwarantable and inuallid, wherin they resigne vp the power of disposing of the townes lands vnto the whole inhabitants of the towne; and that if then they would and did lay downe their comission, it did att the same instant returne to the Court, from whence it was received; and the Court doth now declare their acceptance and confeirmation of what the said trustees did vnto the said 13th of December in reference vnto any graunts of lands that they made in propriety vnto any inhabitants of that place, and doe further allow of and by our p^sent acte confeirme all after graunts of lands in propriety that haue since that time bin made by the towne, (although not soe regular and orderly as should haue bin;) and taking notice by many suites, contestes, plaints, and petitions, that the said towne are very vnsettled and vnresolved vnto whom the right of comions appertaines, and that by reason therof many vnworthy psons in that towne take advantage to make stripp and wast of their timber, to the townes great damage and prejudice, and because such appeers to be the condition of that towne that they can not of themselues reclaime nor suppress such trespassors, nor settle the right of the comions for their future peace, this Court, vpon the grounds aboue mensioned, and as fathers of the comion wealth being also studious of the peace and prosperitie of that plantation, not seing any other or better way to effect their settlement in reference to the premises, doe see reason to order, and doe hereby appoint, that a committee of eight meet persons, whoe are supposed proprietors of that towne, be indifferently chosen out of both parties to debate, determine, and settle the matter, soe much in controuersy, respecting your right in commons their proportion, and to provide such orders as may be effectfull to preserve the towne from ruine and spoyle as respecting the same; and two or three of the majestrates wilbe helpfull therein, if desired.

The persons appointed by the Court are, Cap^t James Cudworth, Cornett Studson, Isacke Chettenden, and Leiftenant Bucke on the one parte, and John Turner, Seni^r, John Turner, Juni^r, John Bryant, Seni^r, and John Daman on the other parte; and this Court doth comissionate and fully authorize and empower the abouemensioned to heer, debate, determine, and settle the right of the commons of that towne, and to proportion it according to the greater or lesser rights of the severall inhabitants thereof, and to preserve the commons from wast and spoyle for the future; and what the abouesaid eight persons, or any five or more of them concurring, shall order respecting the premises, shall be vailed and binding; and that they apply themselves to issue it between this and next Octobert Court; and if they doe not or can not soe agree as to attaine the end intended, (namly, the settlement of persons according to their just rights and the preservation of the commons from spoyle,) that they make their returne to the said Court, whoe hold themselves bound to take what further course the case may require for the townes good; and what necessary charge may arise in the proccution of this order, to be borne by such as haue interest in the vnderquid lands of the towne of Scituate according to their severall proportions therein.

It is not intended by this order that the saw mill built by M^r Tilden and others should be deprived of any just priviledg therunto appertaining by vertue of the townes order or contract with the builders.

And, further, wee doe humbly intreat your protection and healp, if that any cuill psons should rise vp against vs in an hostile way to destroy a pte or all of vs, forasmuch as wee haue bine enformed of late that some psons haue designed our destruction, not for any hurt that wee haue done vnto them, neither for any propriety that they can challenge to our psons or lands or what wee possesse besides, but onely for that wee are seeking after the knowlidg of the true God and his wayes. Thus hoping wee shall remaine faithfull vnto you in keeping of our engagement with you, doe confirme it by seting our hands, a pte of vs for our selues and in the behalfe of our finds and neighbors inhabiting within the lymetts of the foremencioned places.*

And that if the psons and estates of such as wee are nessesitated to take armes against will not defray the charge of the expedition, that shee shall beare some due proportion of the charge. *Seuerall Conclusions agreed on by the Councell of Warr att their Meeting held att Plymouth on the 23 of August, 1671, as followeth.

1. The councell of warr, haucing seriously considered of the case in reference to the Phillippe, the cheife sachem of Pacanacutt, hee haucing neglected to answare his ingagement to bringe in his armes att the day appointed, and alsoe in his not coming in to giue the reason therof, being required therunto, and his vukind carriages towards vs as otherwise, soe in his indeauoring to insence our naighbour collonie against vs by misinformations, and by his insolent carriages and expressions of vs and against vs, and likewise by his entertaining of many strange Indians which might pretend danger towards vs; in special, by his entertaineing of diuers Saconett Indians, professed enimies to this collonie, and this against good counsell giuen him by his best frinds; the promises considered, doe vnanimously agree and conclude, that the said Phillip hath violated and couenaut plighted with this collonie att Taunton in Aprill last.

2. It is vnanimously agreed and concluded by the said councell, that wee are nessesarily called to cause the said sachem to make his psonall appeerance to make his purgation in reference to the promises; which incase of his refusall, the councell, according to what att present appeers, doe determine it nessesary to indeauor his reducement by force; and inasmuch as the controuersy, which hath seemed to ly more emediately between him and vs, doth concerne all the English plantations, it is therefore determined to state the case to our naighbour collonies of the Massachusetts and Rhode Hand; and if by their waighty advice to the contrary wee are not diuerted from our present determinations, to signify vnto them, that if they looke vpon themselues concerned to engage in the case with vs against a common enimie, it shalbe well accepted as a neighbourly kindnes, which wee shall hold ourselues obliged to repay when Providence may soe dispose that wee haue opportunitie.

Accordingly, fers were despatched and sent from the councell, one vnto the said Phillip, the said sachem, to require his psonall appeerance att Plymouth on the 13th day of September next in reference to the particulars aboue mencioned against him; this letter was sent by Mr James Walker, one of the councell, and hee was ordered to request the companie of Mr Roger Williams and Mr James Browne to goe with him att the deliuey of the said letter.

And an other letter was sent to the Gou^r and Councell of the Massachusetts by the hands of Mr John Freeman, one of our majistrates, and a third was directed to the Gou^r and Councell of Rhode Hand, and sent by Mr Thomas Hinckley and Mr Constant Southworth, two other of our majistrates, whoe are ordered by our Councell with the letter to vnfold our present state of matters relating to the promises, and to certify them alsoe more certainly of the time of the meeting together in reference to engagement with the Indians, if there be a going forth, which wilbe on the 20 of September next.

It was further ordered by the Councell, that those formerly pressed shall remaine vnder the same impresment vntill the next meeting of the said Councell on the 13th day of September next, and soe alsoe vntill the intended expedition is issued; vnlesse they shall see cause to alter them, or adde or detract from them, as occasion may require.

And that all other matters remaine as they were in way of preparation to the said expedition, vntill wee shall see the mind of God further by the particulars forenamed, improved for that purpose.

It was further ordered by the Councell, that all the townes within this jurisdiction shall in the interim be sollicitously carefull to prouid for their safety by convenient watches and wardings, and carrying their armes to the meetings on the Lords dayes, in such manor as will best stand with their particulars and the common safety.

And in particulars, they ordered, that a guard shalbe prouided for the safety of the Gouernors person, during the time of the aboue named troubles and expeditions.

And the Councell were summoned by the president to make their personall appearance att Plymouth, on the thirteenth day of September next, to attend such further busines as shalbe then presented by Providence in reference to the promises.

*On the 13th of September, 1671, the councell of warr appeared according to their summons, but Phillip, the sachem, appeared not, but in sted thereof repaired to the Massachusetts, and made complaint against vs to diuers of the gentlemen in place there, whoe wrote to our Gou^r by way of persuasion, to aduise the Councell to a compliance with the said sachem, and tendered their healep in the achieuing therof, declaring in summe that they resented not his offence soe deeply as wee did, and that they doubted whether the covenants and engagements that Phillip and his predecessors had plighted with vs would plainly importe that hee had subjected himselfe and people and country to vs any further then as in a neighborly and frindly correspondency.

The Councell, haueing deliberated vpon the promises, dispatched away letters declaring their thankfull acceptance of their kind proffer, and invited the commissioners of the Massachusetts and Coñecticut, (they then being in the Bay,) & some other gentlemen, to come to Plymouth and aford vs their help; and accordingly on the 24th of September, 1671, M^r John Winthorpe, Gou^r of Coñecticut, Major Generall Leuerett, M^r Thomas Danforth, Captaine William Davis, with diuers others, came to Plymouth, and had a faire and deliberate hearing of the controuersy between our colonic and the said sachem, Phillip, hee being personally present, there being also competent interpreters, both English and Indians, at which meeting it was proved by sufficient testimony to the conviction of the said Phillip, and satisfaction of all that audience, both the said gentlemen and others, that hee had broken his covenant made with our collonie at Taunton, in Aprill last, in diuers particulars, as alsoe carryed very vnkindly vnto vs diuers wayes.

1. In that hee detained and neglected to bringe in the resedue of his English armes, not deliuered at Taunton, according to his engagement, and that notwithstanding hee was allowed competent time, yea, his time enlarged, yett hee neglected as afsaid, and instead of bringing them in, improved the opportunity of time rather to make them out of the way.

2. That hee had carryed insolently and proudly towards vs on seuerall occasions, in refusing to come down to our Court, when sent for to haue speech with him, to procure a right vnderstanding of matters in difference betwixt vs.

3. That hee entertained, harboured, and abetted diuers Indians, not of his owne men, which were vagabonds, our professed enimies, who, leauing their owne sachem, repaired to him and were harboured.

4. That notwithstanding the great wronge hee had done vnto vs in these and such like respects, instead of repairing to the Court, and to endeauer a reconciliation, hee takes his journey into the Massachusetts Bay, with seuerall of his councill, indeauoring to insinuate himselfe into the majestrates, and to misrepresent matters vnto them, whoe are our good friends and neighbors, and what in him lay, therby to worke mischeife and difference between them and vs.

5. That hee had shewed great inciuillitie to diuers of ours at seuerall times, in speciall vnto Mr James Browne, whoe was sent by the Court on speciall occasion as a messenger vnto him, and vnto Hugh Cole at another time, &c.

The gentlemen forenamed, takeing notice of the promises, haueing fully heard what the said Phillip could say for himselfe, haueing free libertie soe to doe without interruption, adjudged that hee had don vs a great deal of wronge and injury respecting the promises, and alsoe abused them by carrying lyes and false storyes to them, and soe misrepresenting matters vnto them, and they psuaded him to make an acknowledgment of his fault, and to seek for reconciliation, expressing themselves that there is a great difference between what hee asserted to the gouernment in the Bay and what hee could now make out concerning his pretended wronges; and such had bine the wronge and damage that hee had done and procured vnto the collonie as ought not to be bourne without competent repairation and satisfaction; yea, that hee by his insolencies had in probabilitie occasioned more mischeife from the Indians amongst them then had fallen out in many yeares before; they psuaded him therefore to humble himselfe vnto the majestrates, and to amend his wayes, if hee expected peace, and that if hee went on in his refractory way, hee must expect to smart for it, the particulars wherof are more att large to be seen in a full discourse between our majestates and the gentlemen aforesaid and him, which is extant. In fine, severall propositions were drawne vp and read, vnto which hee was left to accept of or reject, as hee should see cause, in reference vnto his entering into a new couenant with vs; and alsoe in reference to a way of reparation of some pte of the wronge don vnto vs, the contents wherof are as followeth, by him accepted of and signed vnto.

1 July.
PRENCE,
Gou^r.

This Court doth appoint the Treasurer, Captaine Cudworth, and Cornett Studson to repaire to Barnstable, to heare a difference between Captaine Fuller and Samuell Fuller, Seni^r, on the one p^ty, and the towne of Sandwich on the other p^ty, about bounds of lands; and incase they can issue it and settle it, that they soe doe; but if not, that they make report vnto the Court how they find matters in that behalfe.

In reference vnto a controuersy betwixt Wiltam Hailstone and James Walker, which hath bine of longe standing, relating to an award made by M^r John Wiswall, M^r Richard Callicott, and Cap^t James Jolnson, concerning and for the issuing of some difference betwixt the said p^ties, they, the said Wiltam Hailstone and James Walker, refering the case for a finall issue to the determination of the Court, haueing heard there please on both sydes, and pused all such writings that were produced relating therevnto, doe determine and conclude as followeth, viz^d: that forasmuch as that it appeers, vpon examination, that the said James Walker hath not pformed the latter p^te of the said arbetracion, viz^d, to repaire the said Hailstone his reputation in the church, and to make a returne therof vnto the said arbetrators, which hee neglected to doe, the Court doe therefore order, that hee shall pay or cause to be payed vnto the said Hailstone the sume of five pounds, in either good, marchantable porke, or good barr iron, betwixt this date and the fifteenth day of October next, att prise then currant; and whereas the said James Walker did openly and vnadvisedly, on a Lords day, accuse the said Wiltam Hailstone of telling seueral palpable lyes and founded vpon a lye, wherby the said Hailstone was much scandalised, this Court doth heerby aduise the said James Walker publickly to acknowledge the wronge hee hath done him in the meeting, on the Lords day, in the congregation; and this our award and joynt determination to be a full and finall issue of all such differences and controuersyes as relate vnto the p^mises.

This Court doe order M^r John Freeman and Richard Bourne to purchase a peece of land or p^sell of land att Mannomett, called and knowne by the name of the Old Feild, for the said M^r Bourne his more convenient improuement of his meddow there, prouided that the Indians to whome it belongeth shall haue free libertie, notwithstanding this order, to improue it without interruption, both them and there heires foreuer.

Whereas Wiltam Paybody complained vnto the Court that Wiltam Numacke and Moses Numacke, of Pinquine Hole, allies Weesquebs, that they are indebted to him the sume of seauen pounds and four shillings, what they cannot satisfy otherwise then by making ouer some land for a time, this Court haue, with the consent of the said Wiltam and Moses Numacke, layed an extent vpon their lands, willed to them by their father, lying between the riuer of Pinguine Hole aforsaid and Nuksissett, with the longe necke which goeth into the sea called Wenamett, both vpland and meddow, with all and singulare the appurtenances and priuiledges belonging thervnto, for the full tearme of ten yeares from the fifteenth day of October next, from thence fully to be compleated and ended, to be for the vse and improuement of the said Wilham Paybody, to him and his heires and assignes for the full tearme aboue expressed; onely that the said Wilham Paybody is to mow the meddow this yeare, and the said Wilham Numacke and Moses Numacke they or either of them may, by the payment of the abouesaid summe within one yeare from the date heerof, redeeme their abouesaid land.

In reference vnto a whale brought on shore to Yarmouth from sea, the Court leanes it to the Treasurer to make abatement of what is due to the countrey therof, by law, as hee shall see cause, when hee hath treated with those that brought it on shore.

*This Court, att the former session, takeing notice of the longe continued difference between John Cooke, of Dartmouth, and many of the inhabitants and purchasers of that place, and judging it difficult for them to put themselves into a capassitie of ending it without the Courts interposing to their heale, did then direct an order to the said towne and purchasers, to appeer att the adjournment in July instant, in their psons or by their deligates, to attend a finall issue of the abouesaid controuersyes. They, soe appeering att the Court, agreed joyntly to refer the whole matter of difference between the said John Cooke and the towne of Dartmouth or purchasers, respecting all their publicke or comon transactions, to the majestrates of this Court. whoe, after a full hearing of pleas on both sydes, managed by John Smith, Samuell Hiekes, and Peleg Tripp, in the behalfe of the purchasers, and well considered therof, doe award and determine as followeth: —

1. Viz^s, that John Cooke shall haue and foreuer enjoy a little island called Ram lland, by the said towne disposed to him for former seruice; and secondly, that they the said towne and purchasers doe pay or cause to be payed vnto John Cooke his debt of eleuen pounds for latter agencye and disbursments for them, and three pounds for his damage and trouble, which fourteen pounds shalbe payed to him or his order in good and marchantable porke, beefe, and corne, in equall proportions, att or before the middle of October next, or otherwise to his content.

And wee determine the bounds of the plantation to be according to a deed giuen by Phillip, the sachem, bounded on the east by a blacke oake, marked on foure sydes, concerning which tree all pties did agree, and from the said tree by a south line, as run by Robert Hazard, downe to the salt water, and by the contrary line into the woods extending eight miles from the said tree, and att the westerly end as bounded by the abouesaid deed.

And lastly, wee determine that, John Cooke being payed what wee haue aboue awarded, hee shall deliuer vp the deeds and acquittances concerning those lands vnto whom shalbe appointed to receiue and keepe it for the towne and purchasers therein interested; and this wee order to be recorded as our award, and to stand as a full, absolute, and finall conclusion of the abouesaid controuersyes between the said John Cooke and the towne and purchasers of Dartmouth aboue mentioned, and his and their heires for euer.

In reference vnto the towne of Dartmouth, it is ordered by the Court, that whereas an apparent neglect hath bin for the two yeares last past of the gathering in of the summe of fifteen pounds a yeare, according to the order of Court, to be kept in stocke, towards the support of such as may dispence the word of God vnto them, it being neglected the last yeare in pretence that those that were appointed by the Court to receiue it, and improue it for the ends aforesaid, refused soe to doe, it is now ordered by this Court, that the summe of fifteen pounds be this yeare leuiued to be as a stocke for the vse aforesaid, to be payed and deliuered vnto the constable of Dartmouth, in good and currant countrey pay, to be by him retained and keep vntill hee shall receiue further order from the Court for the dispose of it.

Att this Court it was agreed by and between M^r Constant Southworth and Phillip, the sachem, in reference to the land att att Assowamsett Pond, that whereas the land purchased of the said sachem there was formerly to goe three quarters of a mile broad, and to goe ouer Wachemoccusett Brooke, it is now bounded by the said brooke below, and soe to goe vp by a pond; and what is wanting below by reason the breadth is cutt short by the said brooke, it is to be made vp aboue.

*These presents testifies that whereas Thomas Butler, of Sandwich, haueing bought fifty acres of land of Jonathan Morey, of Plymouth, and these lands falling into the hands of the Indians, viz^t, Quachattassett and Nanumett, the which Quachattassett with Nanumett haue freely and absolutely resigned vp vnto Thomas Butler the whole fifty acres, the which lyeth in two places, that is to say, thirty acres to be measured neare the Ceder Swamp, vpon the side of the path towards Sandwich, the which path goeth from Nanumetts land or planting feild vnto Breake Hart Hill, or the Salt Water Pond, and the other twenty acres is to be measured out of a necke of land that shootes into the Herring Riuer Pond, the which is the biggest necke of land; all which

WHIERAS, vpon a motion made by John Daman and Edward Jenkins, in the behalfe of severall of the ancient inhabitants of Scittuate, whoe haue approued themselves to be peacable, and yett neither closing with the co^mittee in all things, nor yett approueing of the way and course that some others haue taken in the towne, as to the disposing of the vndeuided lands of Scittuate, wherypon the Court gaue them a convenient time to returne their propositions in reference to a mediym or middle way between both, and the names of those psons, and did alsoe withall suspend the execution of the Court order respecting the p^rmisses, vntill the said returne should be made to some of the majestrates, and if vpon their said returne there should appeer nothinge of waight to alter the aforsaid determination of the Court, that then there should be forthwith due course taken to put the said order in execution; and accordingly the said returne was made on the fiftenth of this instant Nouember, and finding nothing therein of waight to alter the Courts said determination, the said order is put in execution as followeth:—

Plymouth, October 29th, 1672. This Court doth appoint and impower Captaine James Cudworth, Cornett Robert Studson, Leiftenant Isacke Bucke, Isacke Chettenden, John Daman, John Turner, Senir, John Bryant, and John Turner, Junir, or any five or more of them, to lay out lands att Scittuate, vnto all those that had an ancient graunt of land from the freemen, before that which is called a surrender, as alsoe to those that were housholder inhabitants in Scittuate before 47, or the successors of such, that neuer received any land from the freemen; and incase the co^mittey be not satisfied concerning the right of any psons that make claime to lands on the abouesaid considerations, that they proceed to lay out vnto such as haue an unquestioned right, and that such as are doubtfull haue recourse vnto the Court to determine their right; the proportions of land to be layed out wee order to be att the descretion of those that are thervnto appointed, provided noe mans proportion exceed eighty acres or to be lesse than fifty; and it is to be layed out by these men

The Court haue impowered Mr Micaell Peirse, Edward Jenkens, and John Bryant, of Scittuate, to see vnto the execution of the order of Court prohibiting the transportation of plunkes, boards, bolts, or barke out of this gouernment.

An Order directed to Thomas Paine, the Water Bayley.

This Court being enformed that few or none of ours are like to fish at the Cape by saine, and that diuers strangers desire libertie there to fish, these are therefore to impower you, in the behalfe of the Court, to giue libertie to such strangers as shall desire there to fish, carrying orderly and paying such dues as by Court order is provided; and this shalbe your warrant therein for this present season.

*Att this Court, the Indian named Secumke, with his two sonnes, appeared in Court, and declared and proued by seuerall Indian testimonies, that all Scanton Neeke was their fathers land; and the said Indian testimony did testify, that it was these two younge mens Luds, and was their fathers, and their grandfathers, and their great grandfathers; and the said Secumkes two sonnes did owne and acknowledge that they had sold and disposed of pte of the said neeke to the Bistable men, viz^t, that end of the said neeke next vnto Barnstable towne, or the sandy beach, soe farr on the neeke towards the westwards vntill it comes right against the brushey swampe, and on the maine to the said brushey swampe, and soe by a straight line to the sea. Alsoe, Quachattasett, the sachem of Mammomett, did likewise owne and acknowledge before the Court, that the aforesaid Secunke was the owner and propriator of the said Sewaton Neeke, and that the said Secunke had giuen vnto the said Quachattasett all that pte of the said neeke next vnto Sandwich vntill it comes to the said brushey swampe, neare vnto Robert Harpers.

The Court, being satisfied by these testimonies that the lands abouementioned, being the souther pte or end of the said Seauton Neeke as farr as the brushey swampe on the maine, and from the said swampe by a straight line to the sea on the same point, that is, the range between the townes of Sandwich and Barnstable, was fairly obtained of the abouementioned Secunke, the right owner, by Barnstable men, doe see clear reason to determine, that vnto the bounds aboue expressed doth and shall appertaine vnto the towne of Barnstable, and that the lands of Captaine Mathew Fuller and the lands of Samuell Fuller, Seni^r, doe alsoe come and joyne home vnto the abouementioned line.

The Court allowes and giues libertie vnto Saconecsett men to make such good and wholesome orders as may be vsefull for their comon good in the place where they lue; and what shalbe done by the major pte shalbe binding to the whole.

Liberty is graunted by the Court vnto Ensigne John Haward to keep an ordinary for the entertainment of strangers att Bridgewater; and that hee prouide himselfe with nessesaries in that behalfe, and keep good orders in his house, that soe there be noe just cause of complaint by reason of any disorders in that respect.

In answere vnto a proposition made to the Court by the towne of Bridgewater, that wheras seuerall psons were formerly appointed by the Court to lay out their lands, some wherof a^r deceased, and others taken off by other occasions, that they may haue libertie to depute some others amongst themselues to be improued for that end, the Court doe declare themselues willing that they may soe doe, and that in case the propriators of the said lands shall generally agree vpon any thing respecting their lands, that the clarke of the towne shall comitt such their conclusions to the records of the towne; and that Elder Brett, M^r Nicholas Byram, and M^r Samuell Edson be heerbv deputed by the Court to purchase those lands which lye on the north syde of Teticott Riuer, within the bounds of Bridgewater, of the Indians, for the townes vse.

It is ordered by this Court, that an Indian called Old John, allies Mopes, shall pay vnto Willam Swift six pound, to be deliuered in tarr att Sandwich, att or before the first of May next, with the charges which hath arisen about a suite comienced att the Court of the Celect Men of the towne of Barnsta-

M^r John Walley, of Boston, in the gouernment of the Massachusetts, marchand, is appointed and heerby impowered by the Court administrator on the estate of Nicholas DAVIS, of Rhode Island, deceased, which shalbe found within this collonie of New Plymouth, p^{re}senting a true inuentory therof on oath to some one of the maiestrates of this jurisdiction att or before the 29th of this instant July, and to doe and p^{er}forme all such acte and actes according to law as may tend to the seizing, securing, or defending, or disposing of the said estate, or any pte or ptes therof, as the matter may require, soe farr as the estate will extend, and to giue a true account of his doings therein to the said Court from time to time, as shalbe required of him.

It was ordered by the Court, and they haue heerby settled a certaine house and land on the widdow, Mistris Sarah DAVIS, the relict of M^r Nicholas DAVIS, of Rhode Island, so^metimes of Barnstable, in the jurisdiction of New Plymouth, deceased, viz^d, that house and land which is in the possession of James Haughton, of Barnstable aforesaid; the which said house and land, with all and singulare the appurtenances belonging therevnto, is assigned, allotted, and disposed vnto the said Sarah DAVIS, widdow, as her pte of the estate of inhabitants of Plymouth att Puncatecsett, wee, whose names are vnderwrit-ten, haue accordingly done the same, and haue bounded it as followeth, viz^d :

*The Court haue vouted M^r Isaacke Robinson to be reestablished in the priviledge off a freeman of this corporation.

Att this Court, information was giuen and complaint made to the Court by Isaacke Chettenden against Humphrey Johnson, of Hingham, in the govt-ment of the Massachusetts, for that the said Johnson hath, contrary to order of Court, cutt downe or plucked vp a stake sett as a bound marke of land layed out by the comittee of Scituate to the said informer att or by a swamp neare the land of Thomas Hiland, Senir.

This case was tried by a jury of twelve men, whose verdict on the case is as followeth:—

Wee find for our soſt lord the Kinge. Humphery Johnson hauing broken a law of this goũment in cutting downe a stake that was sett vp as a land marke, which law is in the Booke of Lawes, chap̄ the third, number the twenty one,—

Vpon consideration of the boldnes and insolency of the said Johnson coming into this goũment, whoe is one of another goũment, to doe this acte, and his pragmatticall management of the same, the Court saw cause, for this facte soe cercomstanced, to amerce him in the summe of five pounds, to be payed as a fine by him to the vse of the collonie.

Att this Court, complaint was made by Isacke Chettenden, of Seituate, that Joseph Turner, Senr, Thomas Turner, Daniell Turner, Jeremiah Hatch, Wilkam Hatch, Thomas Hatch, Charles Stockbridge, John Merrett, Joseph Woodward, Thomas Woodward, Wilkam Randall, and Richard Dwelley assembled together on the 14th day of May last, and did, contrary to law and in a roietus way, throw downe a fence or great p̄sell of fence of the abouesaid Chettendens, by him sett vp on land layed out to him by such as were by the authoritie of this goũment thervnto impowred.

The said psons being summoned to appeer att this Court to answare the said, and there defence being fully heard, it appeered evidently to the Court that there said acte was done in a roietus way in regard of there number, yett conceiuing that there intent was to comit a treaspas onely, to bring the case to a tryall, doe therefore onely amerce them to pay a five shillings a peece to the vse of the collonie.

Wheras it doth appeer to this Court by diuers testimonies that Sarah, the wife of John Williams, of Barnstable, hath violated her marriage bond by comitting actuall adultery with another man, and hath a child by him, this Court therefore sees cause and doe heerby declare, that the said John Williams is legally cleare from his covenant of marriage formerly plighted and made with the said Sarah, his late wife, and doe heerby free him from those duties relateing thervnto, and that the said Sarah hath by her breach of wedlocke cutt off her selfe from any right henceforth to the pson or estate of the said John Williams, her late husband, and doe heerby likewise allow him libertie further to dispose of himselfe in marriage if hee shall see cause for the future soe to doe.

In reference vnto a former graunt made vnto M^r John Howland, deceased, M^r John Chipman, Jonathan Sparrow, and John Rogers, Senr, of Duxburrow, of some accomodation of lands in the land purchased by Captaine Willett, lying on the northeastsyde of the bounds of Taunton, betwena Taun-

*Att this Court, Samuell Packer, Seni^r, is freed from paying the fine amerced on him by the Court for selling liquor to the Indians, which is twenty shillings.

Nicholas White, of Taunton, standeth bound vnto the }ⁿ
Court in the penall sume of } 20 : 00 : 00

The condition, that if the said Nicholas White doe appeer att the Court of his ma^{ty} to be holden att Plymouth the last Tusday in October next, to make further answare to the accusation of Jaell Smith, and not depart the said Court without lycence; that then, &c.

Att this Court, libertie was graunted vnto the said White to haue his case tryed by a jury of twelue men, if hee shall see cause.

Memorand: that the said Jaell Smith be summoned to answare in the case.

In reference to the petition from Saconesett, it is ordered by the Court, that they be allowed to haue one grandjrymen.

And wheras they are much oppressed with many horse kind ruⁿing there and being in a low condition, it is therfore ordered by the Court, for their better abillitie to incurrage the preaching of the word of God amongst them, that all such horse kind as com^only or vsually run in the sum^{er} time vpon their lauds or com^ons, except colts, shalbe assesed one shilling p head, to be payed by euery owner of such horse kind for the end aforesaid, and that euery such owner shalbe freed from paying rates in the township where they lue to such horse kind as aforesaid.

June the 7th, 1665. The Court haue graunted vnto Sachariah Eedey a smale gussett of land lying betwixt his land and the brooke from his house below the path to Namassakett vnto the aforesaid brooke vnto a bridge or way neare vnto Wiltam Nelsons house; the said p^osell of land soe bounded as aforesaid is graunted vnto the said Sachariah Eedey, to him and his heires and assignes for euer, with all the appurtenances belonging thervnto, on condition that the said Sachariah Eedey doe continew a bridge neare his house, in the place where it is needed, for horse and cart, for the vse of the country, for the full tearme of twenty yeares from the date heerof.

In reference vnto the lands formerly graunted vnto Sachariah Eedey, the Court haue ordered, that Serjeant Tinkham and Henery Wood shall lay out the land; and concerning the way that he is to make in leiw therof, to see that it be in such place as may be most convenient for the country and least prejudiciall to him.

June the 5th, 1666. The smale gussett of land graunted vnto Sachariah Eedey betwixt his land and the brooke att Namassakett, by the Court, June the 7th, 1665, is bounded with a blacke oake tree on the southsyde of the old path and a maple tree about his house att a bridge.

In reference to the complaint of Edward and John Rickard against Thomas Dotey and his companie or boats crew, in reference vnto their running their boate against the said Grayes boate, the Court orders, that the said Dotey and his said companie shall pay the sume of twenty and five shillings towards the losse of an anchor and pte of a road which was lost by the said boates running one against another, which sume is to be payed to the said Gray and Rickard, vnto whom the said anker and road belonged, and whereas the said m^r of the boate was much to blame respecting the p^rmises, it is ordered by the Court, that hee shall beare a dubble share of the said award, and that the wittnesses that wittnesed in the case be allowed seauen shillings.

Whereas it was ordered by the Court held att New Plymouth in October, 1673, that the estate of Thomas Cornwell, late of Portsmouth, on Rhode Iland, deceased, should be equally devided, the one halfe to Sarah, the widdow of the said Cornwell, and his three children by her, and the other halfe to the said Cornwells foure soñes by his former wife; and the said Court did further advise, that the widdow and her children should take their ptes in the psonall estate, and the soñes to haue the lands; it is therfore vnderstood, that if the said widdow doe not accept of that distribution made by the Court, but doth still desire to haue her thirds in the lands, shee may and shall haue the third pte of the rents and proffitts of the said lands during her life according to our lawes, and noe otherwise, and that for the same shee make a proportionable allowance to the soñes out of the stocke or psonall estate.

And whereas admiunestration on the said estate was granted vnto Wilham Earle, Daniell Willeckes, and John Cornwell, prouided they gaue securitie to the Court in that behalfe, inasmuch as the season of the year requires that the estate should be looked after, and the said Wilham Earle seemeth to be vnresolved whether to accept of admiunestration or nott, or att least appeers not to giue securitie as the other, wee order, that full power of admiunestration be granted to the said Willeckes and John Cornwell to acte therein without Wilham Earle, vlesse hee shall within one weeke after knowledge heerof repaire to the secretary, and declare his acceptance, and giue securitie respecting the p^rmises.

*Att this Court three natives were arraigned, viz^d, Tobias, & Wampapaum, and Mattushamama, for that being accused, that they did with joynt consent, vpon the 29 of January, anno 1674, att a place called Assowamsett Pond, wilfully and of sett purpose, and of mallice fore thought, and by force and armes, murder John Sassamon, an other Indian, by laying violent hands on him and striking him, or twisting his necke, vtill hee was dead; and to hide and conceale this their said murder, att the time and place aforesaid, did cast his dead body through a hole of the iyce into the said pond. [*116.]

These, being examined, denyed the fact, and put themselues on tryall by God and the cuntry, and were found guilty.

The Verdict of the Jury giuen into the Court in the words followinge.

Wee, of the jury, one and all, both English and Indians, doe joyntly and with one consent agree vpon a verdict: that Tobias, and his son Wampapaquan, and Mattashamama, the Indians, whoe are the prisoners, are guilty of the blood of John Sassamon, and were the murderers of him, according to this bill of inditement.

The verdict of the jury being accepted by the Court, the sentance of death was pronouced against them, the said Tobias, and Wampapaquan his son, Mattashamama, viz^d: to be carryed from the place of tryall to the prison from whence they came, and from thence to the place of execution, and there to be hanged by the head vtill their bodies are dead; and accordingly was executed, the 8th of June, 1675, on the said Tobias and Mattashamamama: but the said Wampapaquan, on some considerations, was reprieved vtill a month be expired from this present date;

In answare to the petition of Richard Wright, requesting land in the right of Peter Maycocke, soñtimes a servant in this collonie, the Court sees noe right appeering by vertue of his claime; but as hee hath bin an ancient inhabitant, and hath not bin much considered, and appeers to stand in need, haueing children that may employ land, the Court saith, if hee can find out land that is free and may be granted, the Court will, vpon intelligence giuen them, consider him according to his condition.

An Order directed to the Com̄ittee of Seittuate.

Gentlemen: John Daman hath complained that you gaue him fifty acres of land, and vpon a suggestion that hee had land on that account before, you drew backe, notwithstanding hee appeered in a list from the Court to be one land was promised to; and therefore wee request and thinke indeed hee ought to be considered, and desire you would seee doe.

Wheras the townes of Taunton and Swansey haue complained that the towne of Rehoboth, haueing run their line, non of those townes being p̄sent, and soe being their owne carriers, they haue reason to feare the said line is much to their preiudice, and alsoe that Rehoboth bounds are yett imperfect and can not by them be certainly knowne, this Court doth therefore order, that the said lines between them and the complaining townes be run againe according to graunt of Court between this and October Court next, and that the said adjoyning townes haue seasonable notice of the time of their doing it, that they may haue further satisfaction improueing some of their [^], to see it fairly settled.

Att this Court, Nathaniel Morton requested the Court to haue libertie to seek out for some accomodation of land for himselfe and in the behalfe of the posteritie of his brother, John Morton, deceased, as being decended of Mr

Gorge Morton, deceased, and in reference to his place as being one that hath served the country this many yeers, the Court hauncing considered his predecessor, M^r Nathaniel Souther, with a considerable tract on that account, the Court ordered, that hee bee considered with such freemen as are abovenamed that may make their addresses to the Court for a supply.

Wheras att a former request and petition of the towne of Taunton, the Court orders, that the line betwixt them and Bridgwater might be run, which notwithstanding hath bin hitherto neglected, and that now the towne of Bridgwater hath petitioned the Court that the said line may now be run, this Court now ordereth, that the line be run according to their graunt between this Court of his ma^{ty} to be holden att Plymouth the first Tusday in July next, and that notice be given to the Treasurer and the time intended, hee being appointed and requested by the Court to assist therein.

The Court haue granted vnto M^r John Holmes, teacher of the church of Christ att Duxburrow, and vnto M^r John Smith, teacher of the church of Christ att Sandwich, — to M^r Holmes in the right of his father, and to the said M^r Smith for his accomodation, — a certaine tract of land att Pinquine Hole, that is to say, the land of Charles the Indian, bounded on the northsyde by the lands of M^r Josiah Standish, and Pinquine Hole Riuer on the south, by the sea on the west, and soe extending into the woods; to be equally deuided betwixt them in equall and alike proportions, they purchasing it of the Indians.

In reference vnto a difference between some of the purchasers and Wilham Nicarson about title of lands att Mannamoiett, exhibited to the Court, the one by his petition and the other by their remonstrance, given into the Court by Thomas Clarke and Jonathan Banges in the behalfe of severall others, the Court haue appointed M^r Hinckley, M^r Gorum, and Jonathan Sparrow to sett the bounds of their lands between them, according to the Courts graunt, vnto the freemen that haue interest with the said Nicarson therein; and that they take speciall regard that they leaue noe vacant lands between their inhabited lands and the sea or water; and if M^r Hinckley can not attend it, then Captaine Howes to supply his place in it.

And wheras Wilham Nicarson requesteth that their neighborhood att Mannamoiett may be allowed to be a townshipp, the Court conceiues they are not in a capacittie att p^rsent to manage the affaires of a towne, and therefore for the p^rsent allow them to haue a deputie, constable and a grandjurymen, which shalbe chosen by the towne of Eastham together with themselves, and in all other respects to remaine and relate vnto the towne of Eastham for bearing their p^rte of all other charge, as was settled the last June Court.

In reference vnto the petition of Mistris Elizabeth Tilden, wherin shee desires the Court to consider her soe as to order her some reliefe out of the estate in her hands for the bringing vp of three of her children, the Court, taking it into serious consideration, doe allow her out of the estate in her hands twenty pounds for the two last years.

M^r Thomas Dexter and Thomas Tupper are appointed by the Court to gather in the minnsters maintainance att Sandwich.

Wheras the Court is informed, that one whose name is John Steunson, son in law to M^r Wilham Blackstone, late deceased, was very healpful to his father and mother in their life time, without whome they could not haue subsisted, as to a good healp and instrument therof, and that hee is now left in a low and mean condition, and neuer was in any measure recompensed for his good service aforesaid, and that, as is said att least, his father in law ingaged to his mother att his marriage with her, that hee should be considered with a competencye of land out of the said Blackstones land hee then liued on, which hath neuer bin yett pformed ; and forasmuch as the psonall estate of the said Wilham Blackston is soe smale and inconsiderable as that hee, the said Steunson, can not be relieued out of it ; this Court, therefore, on consideration of the pmises, doe order and dispose of fifty acres of land vnto the said John Steunson out of the lands of the said Wilham Blackstone, and five acres of meddow, to be layed out to him by Ensigne Henry Smith, M^r Daniell Smith, and M^r Nathaniel Paine, accordingly as they shall judge meet, soe as it may be most conuodious to him and as little prejudiciall to the seat of M^r Wilham Blackstone as may be.

Att a meeting of the counsell of warr for this jurisdiction, held att Plymouth, the fourth day of August, 1675, — [ 120.]

In reference unto a companie of natives now in custody, brought in to Plymouth, being men, weomen, and children, in number one hundred and twelue, vpon seriouse and deliberate consideration and agitation concerning them, the conclusion is as followeth: that wheras, vpon examination, it is found that seuerall of them haue bine actors in the late rising and warr of the Indians against vs, and the rest compliers with them therein, which they haue done contrary to engagement and couenant made and plighted with this colonic, which they haue pfidiouly broken, as appeereth further alsoe in that they did not discouer that puiuous plott which Phillip, with others, completed against vs, which hath caused the destruction of seuerall of vs, by losse of lines and estates, and still held in danger therby, the puiuis considered as aforesaid, the counsell adjudged them to be sold, and deuoted unto seruitude, excepting some few of them, which, vpon speciall consideration, are to be otherwise disposed of, and the Treasurer is appointed by the counsell to make sale of them in the countreyes behalfe.

Forasmuch as by frequent and sad experience it is found, that selling, &c, of armes and ammunition to the Indians is very puiuous and destructive to the English, it is therefore ordered, decreed, and enacted by the counsell of warr for this jurisdiction, that who-soeuer shalbe found to sell, barter, or giue, directly or indiretly, any gun or guns, or ammunition of any kind, to any Indian or Indians, and the same legally proued against them, enery such pson or psons shalbe put to death, and in defect of full and legall proffe there, the printed law to take place.

This law is ratified and confirmed by the Generall Court, Novemb: the 4, 1676.

The councill of warr for this jurisdiction, being mett together att Plymouth the second of September, 1675, to consider of a certaine sell of Indians lately come in to Sandwich in a submissiue way to this collonie, doe find, that they are in the same condition of rebellion as those formerly condemned to seruitude, and doe vnanimously agree that the said Indians, being in number fifty-seauen, are condemned vnto ppetuall seruitude, and therfore doe heerby order and appointe the Treasurer to make sale of them, for and to the vse of the collonie, as oppertunity may present.

This Court, takinge into their serious consideration the tremendous dispensations of God towards the people of Dartmouth, in suffering the barbarous heathen to spoile and destroy most of their habitations, the enimie being greatly advantaged therevnto by their scattered way of liuing, doe therefore order, that in the rebuilding or resettling therof, that they see order it as to liue compact together, att least in each village, as they may be in a capassitie both to defend themselves from the assault of an enimie, and the better to attend the publicke worship of God, and minnistry of the word of God, whose carelesnes to obtaine and attend vnto, wee feare, may haue bin a prouocation of God thus to chastise their contempt of his gospell, which wee earnestly desire the people of that place may seriously consider off, lay to hart, and be humbled for, with a sollistius indeamor after a reformation therof by a vigorous putting forth to obtaine an able, faithfull dispenser of the word of God amongst them, and to incourage him therein, the neglect wherof this Court as they must not, and, God willing, they will not pmitt for the future.

Alsoe this Court doth order, that the people of Middleberry doe attend the like course in their rebuilding and resettling, as is ordered for Dartmouth.

*The 28th of June, 1676, three Indians — the first named Peter, (Awashunckes, the squa sachems son,) the 2nd Gorge, the third Dauid, allies Chohawanna — appeered before the councell, in the behalfe of themselves and other Indians of Saconett to the number of about thirty men, with their wiues and children, and tendered to renew their peace with the English, and requested libertie to sitt downe in quietnes on their lands at Saconett.

The Examination of the said Indians before the Councell in Reference to the ¶mises.

Peter, (Awashuncks son,) being asked the reason of their coming hither, answered, because hee and the Indians of Saconett desired to settle there againe; vnto which was replied as followeth: What reason haue you to expect that your request heerein should be graunted, since you haue broken your engagements with vs by joyning with the sachem Phillip att Mount Hope and other Indians, our professed enimies, and haue bin copartenors with them in all assaults and enterprisses against vs, in which said hostile attemptes many of ours haue lost their liues, habitations, and estates? And you must not thinke that wee can passe ouer matters of such a high nature soe shighly. Wee are not willing to value the blood of our English frinds att soe low a rate. You are neuer able to make satisfaction for the wronge, nor make good the damage you haue don vs by your pfiduous dealings in this respect. Your way had bine, when you saw the said Phillip and other our enimies to rise vp in rebellion against vs, to haue declined them and repaired to the English, and placed your selues vnder our protection, &c.

Then Peter said they had not bin actiue in fighting with the English, but fledd away for feare.

Ques. Why did you feare the English ?

Ans. When the English army went out, wee were afraid, and desired to go ouer to Rhode Iland ; but the younge men there kept such a strict watch that wee could not get ouer in saftey. Then wee were forced to hyde ourselues in swampes ; and the English army came and burnt our houses ; and wee vnderstanding that the Narragansetts were frinds to the English, wee went to them.

Question. Did the Indians burne the English houses before the army came ?

Answer. Yee, they burned theire forsaken houses.

Quest. Did the English doe you any wrong att any time, or speak high or threating words to you that scared you ? Speake freely, without feare.

Ans. The English neuer did vs any hurt or wronge to this day ; if they had, wee would speake of it.

Gorge, another of the three Indians, said, that att the first breakeing forth of the warr, diuers of them satt still and minded theire worke att home ; but some of theire Indians did then goe to Phillip, and fight with him against the English.

Peter and Gorge againe desired the gofiment heer to giue them leaue to liue sofmwhere within our liberties, and they would be subject to the English, and desired that the English would propound tearmes, and they and all theire companie would consent to them ; for they had noe cause to be angry with the English, who had don them noe wronge.

To which was answered, Wee haue found you soe pfiduous, that wee must haue some good security for your fidelitie before wee can graunt your desires.

Chowohumma, allies Dauid, said, Wee cannot make satisfaction for the wronge don ; but if our weemen and children can be ceeced, wee will doe any seruice wee can by fighting against the euimie. They further said, that Suncanowassucke was the first man that stired vp the Indians to joyne with Philip to fight against the English, and that hee now is att Saconett ; and they promise to surprise him, if they can, as soon as they returne home ; they owned, alsoe, that diuers of the Saconett Indians were killed in the fight att Narragansett.

After some time of consideration of the foregoing debate, the councell came to this conclusion, that they would returne this answare : —

Wee take notice of your tender soe farr as to waite for further probation of your fidelitie; and in order vnto further experience and knowledge thereof, doe appoint you to returne to your associates againe, and to procure them to our army now abroad; and that you all personally ingage with our commaunder incheiffe respecting the promises, and to be att his dispose in reference vnto improoving any of you in the present expedition against the enimie; and that such as are not improved shall surrender vp their armes to Major Bradford, our commaunder in cheiffe aforesaid; and, alsoe, that such murdering Indians amongst you that haue bin active in crewelty and hostilitie vpon any of our English in the takeing away of their liues and destroying their estates in a murderous way shalbe deliuered vp vnto the English; and, likewise, that you shall not harbour or retaine any strangers of our enimies that may or shall endeavor to shelter themselves amongst you.

The counsell alsoe proposed, that if the said Peter, Awashunckes son, werẽ willing, that hee should stay as a hostage; to which hee replied, hee was willing to stay vntill further and mature knowledge can be taken of their fidelitie.

In fine, they subjecting themselves and their estates to his ma^{tie} the Kinge of England, &c, our dread soũ, and to this collonie, it was promised and engaged vnto them by the counsell, that they shall haue a place assigned them for their present residence in peace; and incase the warr doe cease, and that they approue themselves in faithfulness, peace, and quietnes, and reall to their ingagements to the English, they shall haue a place assigned them for their improouement and subsistence for longer time and continewance, or otherwise to be disposed of as the counsell shall see meet.

Court, this Court, haueing heard and considered theire mutuall pleas, doe order, that the said John Doughty shall haue allowed vnto him by the sonnes that enjoy the lands of the said Jacob Cooke pportionable to theire respectiue ptes by them enjoyed, either two acres of the marsh lying together out of the six acres lying att Joneses Riuer, or forty shillings in current New England mony, and forty shillings more to him in curent country pay out of the estate belonging to the sisters according to theire respectiue ptes, and this to be a finall end of the said difference.

Joseph Bartlett stands bound vnto this Court in the penall sume of forty pounds sterling. The condition, that whereas the said Joseph Bartlett hath obtained letters of administration to adminester on the estate of Katheren Fallowell, late of Plymouth, widdow, deceased, if, therefore, the said Joseph Bartlett doe pay or cause to be payed all such debts and legacyes as are justly due and payable vnto any pson or psons from the said estate, soe far and by equal proportions as the estate will amount vnto, and keep a faire account of the said administration, and be redy to giue in the account vnto the Goſſ and Court of New Plymouth when required, and saue and keepe harmles and vndammnyed the said Goſſ and Court from any damage that may aerev vnto them by his said administration, that then the said administration to be void and of non effect, or otherwise to remaine in full force, strength, and vertue.

The 12th of June, anno 1676, generall Indians, a pte wherof were sent in by Major Bradford, with others brought in by a smale pty of ours that issued out as scouts, were conuented before the councell, such of them as were accused of workeing vsufferable mischeiffe vpon some of ours.

The first of them in question was a salvage named Wotuchpo, allies Tuchpo, whoe was questioned with three pticulars or articles.

1. Why hee fled out of his confines, which hee was enjoyned to keep on paine of death, wherin if hee obediently had stayed, hee might haue bine safe; to which hee made little answare to ppose.

2. Was in reference vnto his abusing our Goſſ by fraud and falshood, indeauoring to pswade him that there would be noe need to send forth an army, forasmuch as Phillips men had deserted him, soe as hee had very few left with him except old men and boyes; to which hee could say nothinge.

3. Was in reference to his goeing too and continewing with our open bloody enimies all the time of the warts hither vnto, in which time soe many crewill and hostile villanies haue bin acheiued; neither could hee defend this.

Att the same time three other Indians appered before the councell, whose names were Woodcocke, and Qnanapawhan, and one called John Num; the two former were accused by an Indian s^qua, that they were p^resent and actors in that bloody murder of Mistris Sarah Clarke, on the 12th of March before the date heerof; and these two accused John Num of the same fact; and they all, vpon examination, confessed they were p^resent att the com^mitting of that horred murder and outrage, and soe had a hand as coc p^rtenors therein; the last named, John Num, owned, alsoe, that hee was of that companie that murdered Jacob Michell and his wife and John Pope; and soe ceutance of death was pronounced against them, which accordingly emediately was executed.

Now, forasmuch as the counce^l had before this engaged to seuerall Indians, desirous to come in and tender themselves to mercye, that they should find fauor in soe doeing, it was fully made knowne to such Indians as were then p^resent that the said engagement was to be vnderstood with exception against such as by murder as abouesaid had soe acted, and not against such as killed his enimie in the feild in a souldier like way.

*The three Indians fore named, some little time before their ceutance, accused Keweenam, an Indian sometimes liueing about Sandwich, that hee was the first instigator of Tatoson to com^mitt the aforesaid murder, viz^t, that hee went to him and certifiyed him that hee had lately bin att the house of Wilham Clarke, att the Eelriuer, and that his house was slightly fortified, and that it was well furnished with nessesaries, and that his way would be to reaire thither now, and that on the Lords day, the folkes of the house being but three, the most of them would be gon to meeting, and they, being there, might descerne it; and in case they left a man att home or soe, they might soon dispatch him, and then they would mett with noe opposition, but might doe as they pleased, on which the night following, (this being on the last day of the weeke,) the said Tatoson went towards Plymouth, and on the morrow following, in the morning about 9 or ten of the clocke, hee with his companie did this crewill villanic.

On the 21 of July, 1676, the said Keweenam was p^resented before the counce^l, and examined on the p^rticulars before named; but hee did not fully owne the said accusation, onely hee owned that hee was att Wilham Clarkes house a little before the facte com^mitted, and in companie with Tatoson the day before, which was the Satterday, the said fact being com^mitted on the Lord day following, and further confessed that hee held correspondency with Tatoson, one of the most notorious of our enimies, and had giuen him information of the weaknes of the house, both with respect to fortification and men; and withall it being manifest that hee altogether neglected to giue intelligence to the English where Tatoson was, nor concerning his intensions and actions, which if hee don seasonably, it might haue preuented the following mischeiffe.

Hee, the said Keeweenam, being required againe to speake, if hee had ought to say for himselfe, hee had free libertie, but said little or nothing to any purpose.

Wherupon the councell, considering that there three positivie testimonies whoe witnessed as abovesaid, and with all diuers concurring cercomstances, which haue a tendeneye to the clearing vp of the case, doe judge, that the said Keeweenam is worthy to die, and so receiued the cenceance of death, which was, that his head should shalbe seuered from his body, which was immediately accordingly executed.

This Court ordereth, that such of the majestrates as haue disposed of any of the Indians children to English masters vntill they attaine the age of twenty four or twenty five yeers of age, according to order of Court in that case prouided, shall signe indentures for such as are soe disposed, to prevent future differences.

Att this Court, the lycence graunted vnto Edward Sturgis, Seni^r, to keep an ordinary att Yarmouth, was called in, and hee required to desist.

*Att this Court, Mr Daniell Smith is authorised and impowered by the Court to adminnester marriage in the liberties of the towne of Rehoboth, and to graunt summons and warrants vnto the tryall of actions, and alsoe incase of misdemeanor, and to adminnester oathes to witnesses relateing thervnto, and to graunt subpenaes for witnesses to giue euidence vnto the grand enquest as occasion may require. [154.]

Lycence is graunted by the Court vnto Edward Rew to keep an ordinary att Taunton for the entertainment of strangers and traouellers, and that hee constantly prouided with nessesaries for the same, and that hee keep good orders in his house, that soe noe abuse be suffered by him on that accompt.

The Inditement of Mary Ingham.

Mary Ingham : thou art indited by the name of Mary Ingham, the wife of Thomas Ingham, of the towne of Scittuate, in the jurisdiction of New Plymouth, for that thou, haucing not the feare of God before thync eyes, hast, by the healp of the diuill, in a way of witchcraft or sorcery, malliciously procured much hurt, mischeiffe, and paine vnto the body of Melittable Woodworth, the daughter of Walter Woodworth, of Scittuate aforesaid, and some others, and p̄ticularly causing her, the said Melittable, to fall into violent fitts, and causing great paine vnto seuerall p̄tes of her body att seuerall times, soe as shee, the said Melittable Woodworth, hath bin almost bereaued of her senses, and hath greatly languished, to her much suffering therby, and the procuring of great greiffe, sorrow, and charge to her parents; all which thou hast procured and don against the law of God, and to his great dishonor, and contrary to our soū lord the Kinge, his crowne and dignitie.

The said Mary Ingham did putt herselfe on the tryall of God and the cuntry, and was cleared of this inditement in processe of law by a jury of twelue men, whose names follow : —

The jury brought in not guilty, and soe the said prisoner was cleared as abouesaid.

Att this Court, likewise, three Indians, named Timothy Jacked, allies Canjuncke, and Nassamaquat, and Pompacanshe, were indited for murdering John Knowles, John Tisdall, Senir, and Samuell Attkins; the said Indian prisoners did put themselves likewise on the tryall of God and the country according to the manor of the English, and had due processe in law, according to the English manor, by a jury of twelue men, whose names follow: —

Mr Thomas Huckens,	Marke Snow,
John Wadsworth,	Joseph Bartlett,
John Howland,	Samuell Jenings,
Abraham Jackson,	Arther Howland,
Benajah Pratt,	Samuell West,
John Blaeke,	Seth Pope.

The verdict of the jury followeth concerning Timothy Jacked, allies Canjuncke, and Nassamaquate: Wee find they are very suspicious of the murder charged on them.

And in reference vnto Pompacanshe, wee find nothing against him. There not appeering further euidence against them to cleare vp the case, the centance of the Court was, that the two former were to be sent out of the country speedily, and the other likewise, as hee is prisoner taken in warr.

*Att this Court, Mamanuett, an Indian sachem att or about Saconett, appeered before the Court, and cleared it vp to good satisfaction, that himselfe and his men, in number fifteen, had, during our late troubles, continewed faithfull to the English, and some of his men had all the time bin in our service, and therefore desired that hee and they might now againe retorne to reposesse their lands not formerly disposed of; the which the Court graunted, and ordered him to giue vs a list of his men and two or three more of his kindred, that were alsoe allowed to liue; and this Court requires him to haue a constant care and inspection ouer them, and to see that they carry faithfully and orderly, and not to entertaine any other Indians there but such as the Court shall allow of.

And forasmuch as this collonie haue bin att great charge to defend both his lands and our owne against the comon enimic, hee ingageth to accomodate soñ Englishman, or entertaine some Indians such as the Court desireth, on that accompt.

Wheras att June Court, 1674, William Hatch and Jeremiah Hatch made their appearence, as being chosen to the office of constables and refusing to serue, craued libertie to make their addresse to the Generall Court, in order to the getting off their fine ; and though they were att the Generall Court, yett made noe applycation vnto the Court respecting the finis : wherfore this Court doth order their fines for neglecting to serue in the office off constable to be collected and gathered.

*Att the Generall Court held att Plymouth for the jurisdiction of New Plymouth, the first of Nouember, ann^o Doñi 1677.

Wheras the Generall Court held the 10th of July, 1677, appointed and impowered the Treasurer, with the assistance of Cornett Studson and M^r Nathaniel Thomas, to make sale of the lands att Shawamett, &c, to defray the countreyes debts, this Court doth declare, that the said words, "the lands att Shawamett," are to be interpreted to containe the lands called the out lett, as well as the necke itselſe, called Shawamett, and therefore doe heerby allow and confeirme the sale of the said out lett lands, as well as the necke itselſe, to all those to whom the said Treasurer hath made sale therof, according to the boundaries of the said out lett heerby mensioned, viz: bounded on the east by Taunton Riuer, on the north by Taunton lands, on the west, ptely by Swansea lands which were purchased of the Indians by Cap^t Thomas Willett and M^r Stephen Paine, Seni^r, and ptely by the lands of Rehoboth, if the countreyes lands extend soe farr westwards, and on the south by the said necke.

And forasmuch as the towne of Swansea conceiue themselves to haue right to the aforsaid outlett lands, which although this Court att p^rsent are otherwise minded, yett being willing for the quiett settleing and satisfaction of Swansea, soe farr as to appoint a comittee to view a stripp of land att the enterance of Mount Hope Necke, with some of Swansea, and some of the p^rsent purchasers of Mount Hope, which said comittee, after the hearing of both pties, shall haue power to determine that stripp of land soe farr to belonge to Swansea as they shall judge most comodious, and least prejudiciall to either place, provided their graunt and determination extend not about 50 or 60 rodd from the said fence downward into the necke, except the comittee shall see cause to extend it soe farr as Kekamenest Springe, and provided that in case Swansea accept therof, then to relinquish all their claime to the said outlett, and all their claime of jurisdiction to the said Mount Hope; and M^r Hinckley and Major Cudworth are appointed by the Court to determine as abouesaid, in the behalfe of the collonie.

The committee appointed by the Court to treat with the agents of Swansea in reference to a settlement of the matters now in controversy between the colonie and them about the claime made by Swansea men vpon their borders, were —

James Barnabey appeered before the Court held att Plymouth the last Tusday in October, 1684, and made choise of his father in law, John Nelson, and Thomas Faunce, to be his gaurdians, and att the same time John Nelson p^rsented six pound in siluer mony, in the p^rsence of the said Court, for the said James Barnabey, accordinge to the ingagements of the said John Nelson, and Lydi, his wife, vnto the Court in October, 1677, and att the abouesaid Court in 1684, the said John Nelson, as gaurdian to the said James Barnabey, did receiue six pound into his hands & keeping, for the vse and improuement of said James Barnabey.

*The verdict of vs, a jury impannelled by the constable of Yarmouth, to serch into and view the what might be the ocaation or cause of the vntimly death of the wife of James Claghorne, of Yarmouth. Wee made enquiry whoe were the p^rsons which first found the woman, and wee found that it was her daughter Elizabeth and her son Robert, whoe, vpon examination, declared to vs that they, missing their mother, and had made serch and enquiry for her, they sent vp into the chamber by one of the children, whoe cryed out that his mother is hanging herselfe; whervpon the said Elizabeth and Robert ran vp, and found her hanging and dead. They thought, howeuer, that shee might haue life, and therefore p^rsently vnloosed the rope or halter, and tooke her downe; and seeing noe life in her, they p^rsently made out cry abroad, and there came to them Jabez Gorum and Jonathan White, whoe declared to vs that they went vp, and found the woman vnder the rope dead and cold, and they tooke her vp and brought her downe into the lower rome; and the abouesaid Elizabeth said that her mother was mising, as shee judged, two houres or more before they found her. Haucing thus farr proceed, wee went to view the place where shee was hanged, as they told vs, and found there an haire rope or halter, fastened very feirme to the collar beame, in which the abouesaid Elizabeth and Robert said shee hanged; then wee viewed the corpses, and found an aparent strake on her necke, where the blood was settled; soe that it is apparent to vs that shee strangling herselfe with a cord was the cause of her death, and by all our serch and inquiry, wee judge that shee hanged herselfe, and haue noe cause, by all our examination and obseruation, to suspect any other to haue any hand in it.

Letters of administration is granted vnto Anna Tisdall, widdow, to adminester on the estate of John Tisdall, late deceased.

And John Richmond, and John Rogers, and Samuell Smith, of Taunton, are appointed to be ouerseers for the desposall of the said estate.

*In reference to the complaint of Robert Badston against Charles Wills, that hee had lyen with his wife, the Court, haucing examined the euidences respecting that case, did not find him guilty of that fact, and therefore cleared him therof, and from keeping the child, and the rather because the said Robert Badston hath frequently companied with his said wife by beding with her, both before and after the child was borne.

Whereas it doth appeer to the Court, that two Indians, one named Thomas Hunter and the other Peter, of Teticutt, were both mutually injoynd and did engage vnto theire sachem to keep, and not imbezell, or sell, or make away certaine lands comitted to them by him, and notwithstanding, the said Peter hath lately made sale of some pte of the said land, contrary to the mind of his ptenor in this matter, vpon the complaint of the said Hunter, the Court ordereth and doth heerby prohibite the said Peter from imbezelling or any wayes making away any more of the said land; but that Thomas Hunter shall retaine it in his owne custody, soe as it may be improued according to the order and mind of him by whom they were betrusted with it.

Libertie is graunted vnto M^r Joseph Bradford and Mistris Jaell Bradford, his wife, to draw and sell beer as oecation may require, soe as they prudently prevent all excesse that may come therby.

*This Court remitteth vnto Christopher Winter, vpon the forfeiture of a bond of fifty pounds currant siluer mony of New Eng^d, the sum̄e of thirty pounds, retaining the sum̄e of twenty pounds, which said twenty pounds is to be payed in currant siluer mony of New England; which said abatement is for that wheras the said Winter gaue the said bonds for his daughter, Anna Batson, her appeerance att this Court to answare for an acte of vncleanes, and shee made an escape; and wheras for what can be descerned her said escape was contrary to her fathers mind, the Court did condescend to abate p̄te of the said forfeiture, as aforsaid.

Elizabeth Loe, being a single woman, is convicted of com̄itting whordom, and centanced by the Court to suffer corporall punishment by whipping, which accordingly was p̄formed.

And wheras shee accused Phillip Leanard to be the father of the child begotten on her by the said acte of vncleanes, wherof hee hath not cleared himselfe to the satisfaction of the Court, hee is ordered and required by the Court to allow towards the keeping of the child two shillings and six pence a weeke in currant marchantable corne, att prise currant att times of payment, or two shillings p weeke in currant siluer mony of New England, vntill the child, if it liues, attaines to the age of 7 yeers from the date heerof.

You shall sweare by the name of the cuerlasting God, that Phillip Leanard, of Marshfeild, is the reall father of the child last borne of your body, begotten in whordom; which oath shee reddily tooke.

The condition of the aboue written obligation is such, that wheras the said Phillip Lenard is accused by Elizabeth Loe, widdow, of begetting her with child, wherof hee hath not yett cleared himselfe, if, therefore, hee, the said Phillip Leanard, hee, his heires, executors, adminnistrators, or assignes, shall and doe pay and make good vnto Elizabeth Loe, the mother of the child begotten as aforsaid, two shillings and six pence in good, marchantable corne, att prise curing, and fitting their shipp for the sea, their designe vnkowne to the authoritie heer.

The honored Gov^r and Councell of the Massachusetts, haueing notice of such a vessell att Plymouth, ill resented it, supposing it might be of ill consequence to the whole country, if pmitted to goe on on a privateering enterprise, which they feared, and for the preventing therof directed a letter to our honored Gov^r and Councell by the hands of M^r John Nelson and severall other marchants of Boston, therein and by them declaring the reasons of their suspicions, viz^t, that whereas Blackleich, haueing bine lately att Boston, gaue noe account of himselfe and designs, but in a private way seduced a considerable companie of seamen to serue with them vnder a comission and prync to them vnkowne, (if any,) which gaue them ground of suspition that they were in a way of piracye.

They alsoe signified, that they doubted that it would be off ill consequence to abett, harbour, or assist those whoe in shew professe an oppen enmitie to the French, our neighbours, with whom wee ought to hold, as well as wee haue receiued all good correspondency, as likewise the euident detriment that wee had and did dayly receiue by the losse and ruining away of their seamen, severall of their vessells being retarded, and others wholly discouraged from going on in their lawfull designes, vpon the suspition and threats of the said Blackleich and his adherents.

Further, they requested our Councell for their p^ticular and speciall serch into the designes of the forenamed p^{er}sons, and, if possible, to giue some sufficient satisfaction to his ma^{ties} proclamation prohibiting any of his subjects to serue vnder any forraigne prince or state, &c, which they had lately receiued, and was hitherto vnkowne to vs, and that noe pretence of forraigne comissions is allowed and fauored by the said his ma^{ties} proclamation. They supposed that it would be best for p^{re}sent to obstruct the said vndertakers in their further proceedings respecting the p^{er}misses, and the rather because, as it is reported, if true, that they are said to be robbers of the said vessell.

The p^{er}misses, with other p^ticulares of like nature considered, occasioned a seizure of the said vessell and supposed com^{an}dors in order vnto further inquiry into this matter; and the said p^{er}sons before our Councell, and his ma^{ties} said proclamation read in their audience, and vpon examination it appeared, that the said John Roads had noe comission, or att least produced none, but being a debauched p^{er}son, and vnder censure of banishment for piracye from the Massachusetts gov^r, and had broken prison att New Yorke, was receiued on board this vessell in a private way; and as for the master, although hee gaue good satisfaction that hee was put in com^{an}dor of the said shipp, and impowered to improue her as a marchant man, but had noe com̄ission made p̄ticularly to him as a privateer or man of warr, but had thought to acte by vertue of a Duch com̄ission graunted vnto the aforsaid Cap̄t Daniell, which was was now rendered null and of non effect by his ma^{ties} said proclamation, and was required to be surrendered vnto the custody of our Councell on that account ; but hee, being not free soe to doe, tendered rather to engage before our Councell noe further to proceed by vertue of that com̄ission because prohibited by his ma^{ties} said proclamation ; which ingagement indorsed on the said com̄ission, it was further declared to be void and of non effect, onely retained by the said Cap̄t Daniell for his defence and securitie, because it appeared hee had formerly acted by vertue thereof.

In fine, because the motions of the fore named vndertakers with their men and vessell was rendered very vncertaine, whether towards the French, as aforsaid, or otherwise, to the damage of the country, an imbergoe was layed on the vessell, and a cessation required of the said vndertakers from further proceeding respecting the p̄mises vntill further securitie can be giuen for the saffety of their future motions on that account ; and the said John Roads com̄itted to durance vntill hee can be returned to New Yorke, from whence hee made his escape.

Sir: Since it hath pleased God to visitt me in this condition, it giueeth mee great cause to beleine my dayes are not longe in this world; therefore my desire and order is, that after my death, you take possession of my shipp, James Friggett, and with all possible conveniency depart this harbour for Barbadoes, and from thence in any p^t of America vse her on any designe or employment, as you shall thinke most convenient and beneficiall for the owners; for I must needs confesse, that by reason of my misfortunes in the disastors of the seas, my owners cargoe being spent, you haue noe other then a bare and naked shipp to worke with; yett through my good thoughts of youer industry, I doubt not but the shipp may for the future proue advantageous to them. For the better compliance with their order, I desire that with the first you advise them of all youer proceedings, and apply youerselfe to them for further order; the which after once receined, doubt not youer compliance, haueing little else to trouble you; once more requesting youer extraordinary care in the pformance of this last desire of your loueing frind,

Constant Southworth,

Assistants, &c.

LIBERTY of administration is granted to Marke Snow and John Rogers, of Eastham, to administer on the estate of Thomas Rogers, of Eastham aforesaid, late deceased, and to be healed therein by the advice of Mr Freeman and Capt Sparrow.

Whereas Thomas Rogers, of Eastham, administrator to the estate of Leiff Rogers, his father, deceased, ended his life before his said administration was completed, this Court impowers Capt Sparrow and John Rogers to complete and finally end the said administration.

James Walker, } are appointed and established by the Court to take
James Wilbore, and } notice of such liquors as are brought in disorderly
Encrease Robinson, } derly into the towne of Taunton, and to make seizure theroffe according to order.

Whereas complaint is made by some of Taunton, that one Samuell Chiuericke is come into their towne disorderly, and contineweth there contrary to the mind of the townsmen, these are therefore to require the said Chiuericke either speedily to procure their approbation to stay there, or otherwise forthwith to depart the said towne.

In reference vnto the settlement of the estate of John Sauage, of Rehoboth, deceased, the Court haue ordered, that forasmuch as the estate consists mostly in land, and scarsly enough of other estate to pay the debts, this Court haue ordered and authorised Obadiah Bowin, Samuell Luther, and Hugh Cole by advice and councill to assist the widdow, Sarah Sauage, the relict of the said John Sauage, in the disposing and improuement of the said estate to the best advantage they can, for the payment of the debts and bringing vp of the children; and incase they be nessesitated to make sale of any of the lands for that purpose, they are heerby impowered soe to doc, it appeering to the Court that the lands were purchased, some of them to the impairing of the said estate; and incase any of the said estate is left when the debts are payed and the children brought vpp, that then the widdow being allowed the thirds, according to law, the remainder to be deuided in equall and alike proportions amongst the children then surviueing when of age.

This Court doth agree with and engage vnto Theophilus Witherill, in regard of his being disabled in the late warr soe as hee is likely to be a cripple all his dayes, the sume of three score pounds in siluer mony of New England, ten pounds therof to be payed forthwith vpon demaund, and fifty pounds the next yeer; and the said Theophilus did accept therof in full satisfaction in respect of his wound receiued in the late warr.

Lycence is granted by the Court vnto Mary Williamson, whoe keepeth an ordinary att Marshfeild, to draw and sell beer, wine, and liquors, soe as shee keep good orders in her house, that soe there be noe just cause of complaint in that respect.

Samuell Dunham, of Middlebery, appeered att the latter end of this Court to demand charges for two witnesses in a case depending betwixt John Doten, plaintiffe, against the said Samuell Dunham, defendant, but could not haue them, the plaintiffe not being in the Court; therefore it resteth vntill the next Court.

[*195.]

*In referenee vnto the settlement of the estate of Samuell Annible, late of Barnstable, deceased, the Court haue ordered, that the seate of land which was formerly Mr Thomas Allins, be and heerby is settled vpon and vnto Samuell Annible, the eldest son of the said Samuell Annible, deceased; and hee is to pay or cause to be payed vnto his sister, Anna Annible, the full and just sume of twenty five pounds, the one halfe in currant siluer mony of New England, and the other halfe in current pay att prise current, att the deliuey therof within two yeers after hee is of age; and that the youngest son, John Annible, shall haue the farme that the aged widdow Annible hath her life in and now liueth on, which was pte of the lands which formerly Anthony Annible lined on; and that hee, the said John Annible, shall likewise pay or cause to be payed to his sister, Anna Annible, the sume of twenty five pounds, the one halfe in currant siluer mony of New England, and the other halfe in currant pay att prise current, att the deliuey therof within two yeers after hee comes to be of age.

And that the widdow shall haue all the moucables and all the stocke for euer, to be att her owne dispose for and towards the bringing vp of the children, hoping that shee will haue a care to bringe them vp in a way of education as the estate will beare, and to haue all the proffitts of all the lands vntill the said Samuell Annible and John Annible comes to be of age, and then the thirds in the proffitts of the lands dureing her naturall life.

Wheras it doth appeer to the Court, that Mistris Mary Wyatt, of Taunton, widdow, is in great nessesitie and a very low condition, in want of maintenance, notwithstanding the estate of her deceased husband came by her, these are to giue libertie, and appoint and authorise Mr James Walker, Wilham Harvey, Senir, and Walter Dean, or any two of them, to lease out some of the lauds or meddowes of the said Leiftenant Wyatt, and the pay or benefitt arising therby shalbe improued for the releiffe of the said widdow, Mary Wyatt; and that the lands or meddowes shalbe leased out for fifty yeers, except the heire see cause to redeem it within that time; and incase the heire redeem it, hee shall pay all that the possesser hath bine att charge on it.

Wheras Capit Fuller, att his death, bequeathed a certaine house, and land, and meddow vnto his grand son, Samuell Fuller, wherin Mistris Francis Fuller hath interest vntill her death, this Court haue appointed and impouered Elder Chipman, and Thomas Huckens, and Mary Fuller, widdow, the relict of Leiff Fuller, deceased, to rattify and confeirme what Mistris Francis Fuller shall doe and agree vpon in reference vnto the letting and setting forth of the said land and meddow, and they consenting to what the said Francis Fuller shall doe respecting the p̄mises, shalbe in full confeirmation therof for the full tearme it shalbe lett forth.

Wheras Hugh Stewert, administrator of the estate of Thomas Phelpps, saith, that there is nothing left for seauen or eight children but an house añ land, which house falleth to decay, the rent not being sufficient to keep it in repaire, the Court giues libertie to the said administrator, with the advice of John Thacher and John Miller, to make sale therof, and the mony to be secured by them vntill the Court shall demaund it, and see cause to order it for the good of the children.

*1678, October. In answare to the petition preferred to the Court by Francis Combe, and likewise the Court being informed that Samuell Fuller is in a likelyhood to be procured to teach the word of God att Middleberry, they doe approue therof; and incase hee be obtained, and be likely to settle amongst them, doe heerby signify, that they will indeauor that the propriators of the lands within that townshipp may be healpfull towards his maintainance.

Francis Combe is lycenced by the Court to keep an ordinary att his house in Middleberry for entertainment of strangers, and is allowed to draw and sell beer, wine, and liquors there, for the entertainment and refreshment of trauelers, and is heerby required to keep good orders in his house, that there arise noe cause of just blame by his negligence in that behalfe.

Taunton, the second of August, 1678.

Wee, whose names are vnderwritten, being warned by the constable as a jury to take the view of a child named Mary Gould, aged about foure yeers or therabouts, being found in the riuer drowned, and haueing dilligently enquired into the matter, our apprehensions are, that the child came to its death by some accedent by falling in or adventuring to wade through, being taken vp out of the water by its mother, and past all meanes of reconery.
