DARTMOUTH TOWN MEETING RECORDS
1680 – 1786

A RESEARCH PAPER PREPARED FOR THE DELANO KINDRED GATHERING IN FAIRHAVEN, MA
JUNE 13, 2018

By Robert E. Harding, PhD June 13, 2018

Overview:

Material from an earlier work: “REVELATIONS, SURPRISES AND TEDIUM IN THE TOWN MEETING RECORDS OF OLD DARTMOUTH”, 2014 combined with:

Original research in these ODTMR's, (Old Dartmouth Town Meeting Records), done exclusively for this Delano Kindred gathering.

Outline

I. Introduction to Old Dartmouth and its “Divisions”

II. The Town Meeting Records and “Improvements in Their Accessibility”

III. Extracts and transcriptions.

I. Introduction to Old Dartmouth and its “Divisions”

For better comprehension and understanding of the language of the ODTMRs

The old town was successively “divided” over time until what had been one town, after four “divisions”, ended up as the collection of Acushnet, Dartmouth, Fairhaven, New Bedford, and Westport

ORIGINAL TOWN OF DARTMOUTH

DARTMOUTH-1 "OLD DARTMOUTH"

DIVISION OF 22 FEB 1787

DIVISION OF 2 JULY 1787
WESTPORT FROM DARTMOUTH-2

THIRD DIVISION

NEW BEDFORD-1 TO NEW BEDFORD-2 &
FAIRHAVEN-1

FOURTH (FINAL) DIVISION

DIVISION OF 13 FEB 1860
FAIRHAVEN-2 TO ACUSHNET & FAIRHAVEN-2

A consequence:

A Delano family, living in a physical location in the Southeast section of the original town, without moving, would be recorded as residents of three different towns over time as the boundaries were changed. "Dartmouth" up until February 22, 1787, "New Bedford" from February 22, 1787 until February 22, 1812, and "Fairhaven" from February 22, 1812 until the present time.

Our excursion into the town meeting records of Old Dartmouth stops before the divisions and hence it is all “Dartmouth”

In regard the word VILLEDGE/VILLAGE

IN ODTMRs THIS IS NOT A HAMLET OR SMALL SETTLEMENT

MEANS TODAY

II. The Town Meeting Records and “Improvements in Their Accessibility (cont.)

1969-SECOND IMPROVEMENT

The Genealogical Society of Salt Lake City, Utah, an organization affiliated with the Mormon Church, as part of a long term on-going program to film and preserve primary records in historically significant locations throughout the world, filmed these transcriptions at the New Bedford City Hall.

They made reels of microfilm images of these pages available to libraries, and other research institutions, throughout the world for a modest fee

Later, they digitized the films (made them available on computers) and made the files available on some paid websites but did not include the ODTMR transcriptions in this program. (But a researcher anywhere could get a roll of microfilm and review the ODTMRs)

2014 - THIRD IMPROVEMENT

WITH AUTHORIZATION FROM THE DARTMOUTH HISTORICAL COMMISSION, I SOUGHT TO BORROW THE NBFPL'S COPY OF THE MICROFILM FOR THE PURPOSE OF DIGITIZING THE IMAGES. This was politely refused with the suggestion that they would help me purchase a copy from the Mormon Church organization which handles sales of those items

AMS Imaging of Warwick, RI converted the film images to a file of digital images in the “jpeg” format for viewing on computers.

We now have facilitated researchers' access by providing these important early records via the internet for internet users anywhere.
